ENJOY GOD'S CREATIONS

The basket by the front door, which had previously held the mittens, scarves and hats, now contains knee, elbow pads, wrist guards, and bike gloves. It is a glorious time of year—gone are the snow, ice and frigid weather. Here are the fragrances of blossoms, luscious spring breezes and sunshine that warms our once chilled bones. It is a good thing we can now stretch our legs with the youngsters outdoors, because our wracked brains have run out of indoor activity ideas! It has been a long winter, hasn't it?

New and adventurous activities are in store in this happy season. While sprucing up your yards you can recruit the help of your children, making a game out of raking leaves and gathering the branches that have fallen during the winter storms.

Nothing can quite compare to the fun of parent-child projects like planting pansies and petunias together. And, if you are so inclined and have the space for it, planting a vegetable garden is a great learning experience. It is very rewarding watching the flowers and vegetables you've planted together, mature and bloom. Come summer, how sweet it will be to harvest and gather the vegetables and have them fresh for dinner that very evening.

Walks in the fresh air are therapeutic as well as refreshing. It also gets us away from the never-ending household chores and out under God's beautiful sky. It can be a time for deep thoughts and prayerful inspiration or just a lot of fun in a lighthearted stroll with your children, collecting rocks and flowers, kicking sand, holding hands and telling jokes.

Being out and about at this time of year, we are more likely to come into contact with neighbors and friends, sharing waves and smiles.

So, as the bright yellow blooms of forsythia brighten our days and the sweet smell of lilacs fill the air; let's take the time with your little ones, letting things go for awhile, cherishing your children's smiles as they delight in the time spent together in springtime fun. ~ Donna Cooper Boyle ~

A Prayer in Spring

By: Robert Frost

Oh, give us pleasure in the flowers today;
And give us not to think so far away
As the uncertain harvest; keep us here
All simply in the springing of the year.

Oh, give us pleasure in the orchard white,
Like nothing else by day, like ghosts by night;
And make us happy in the happy bees,
The swarm dilating round the perfect trees.

And make us happy in the darting bird
That suddenly above the bees is heard,
The meteor that thrusts with needle bill,
And off a blossom in mid-air stands still.

For this is love and nothing else is love,
The which it is reserved for God above
To sanctify to what far ends He will,
But which it only needs that we fulfill.

Thoughts on Priesthood...

Eucharist and the Sacrament of Orders

By virtue of sacred Orders, the priest receives the gift of and commitment to repeating in the Sacrament the gestures and words with which Jesus instituted the memorial of his Pasch at the Last Supper. This great miracle of love, which the priest is called ever more faithfully to witness and proclaim, is renewed in his hands.

This is the reason why the priest must be first and foremost an adorer who contemplates the Eucharist, starting from the very moment in which he celebrates it. We are well aware that the validity of the Sacrament does not depend on the holiness of the celebrant, but its effective-
